

Platform product withdrawal

Dear

Due to the ongoing economic circumstances we will be amending our Automated Valuation Model to ensure that it reflects the current conditions.

As a result we will be withdrawing our current product range with effect from 5pm Friday 2 January. New products will be available from Monday 5 January.

Pipeline deadlines:

Clickdecision and kfis:

All current products will be withdrawn from our website and all sourcing systems at 5pm Friday 2 January.

Please note: All cases that have a clickdecision and kfi produced by Friday 2 January must submit the full application by Friday 9 January or a new clickdecision and kfi will be required

Unpackaged applications

All unpackaged applications must be received at Platform by 5pm Friday 2 January. Applications must have a clickdecision.

Packaged applications

All packaged applications must be received at Platform by 5pm Friday 9 January. Applications must have a clickdecision, be fully packaged and accompanied by all items on our shopping list.

Please note: All cases that have a clickdecision and kfi produced by Friday 2 January must submit the full application by Friday 9 January or a new clickdecision and kfi will be required.
