Our pledges to you

Designed to give you complete peace of mind

We only offer Platform products through intermediaries, so you don't have to worry that we offer better deals direct.

We don't cross-sell other products directly to your customers, so you can feel confident that you have a lender you can trust.

We are transparent about our current service standards, they are updated daily on our website so you know where you stand.

We contact you on receipt of every application and at key stages throughout the application process, so you don't have to chase us or worry about letting your clients down.

We provide you with a designated sales representative, so you know who you are dealing with.

We release your procurement fee within ten working days of completion.

We will give you at least two working days notice of product withdrawals and changes along with a clear explanation of our reasons, as part of our commitment to transparency and fairness.
